

How do you come into contact with hazardous substances?

Through the nose

By mouth

Through the skin

How do you recognize hazardous substances?

Corrosive or
corrosive substance

Minor health
damage

Explosive substance

Flammable
substance

Toxic or very toxic substance

Oxidizing
substance

Dangerous for aquatic environment

Serious
health damage

Gasses
under pressure

In addition to the symbols, you will also find H and P statements on the label.

- The H stands for hazard, which means danger.
- The P stands for precautionary, which means as a precaution.

Which hazardous substances can you encounter?

- Dust
- Asbestos
- Lead
- Patination oil
- Pur foam
- Soldering fluid
- Algae and moss pesticides

What do you do when you work with hazardous substances?

Be aware of the risks

Check the safety data sheet for the substance

Wear your PPE!

Scan the QR and follow our socials!

